

U. S. Army Douglas A-20-A with Cyclone 14's

One of the newest attack bombers in production for the U. S. Army Air Corps, the Douglas A-20-A is powered by two 1600 H. P. Wright Cyclone 14's to give it exceptional performance and striking power. A similar ship designated the DB-7 is being produced in quantity for the Royal Air Force of Great Britain.
