

Canada's Air Atlantic operates Jetstream 41s from Halifax operations began on 28 July, 1974 from Lima to Buenos Aires. The company resulted from a reorganisation of Satco, the airline element of the Peruvian air force. AeroPeru was denationalised in July 1981. In 1993 AeroPeru was privatised and acquired by Corporación Internacional de Aviación (Cintra) which also owns Mexicana and Aeromexico. These three airlines have entered into a codeshare agreement under the name Alas de Americas.

Date established April 1992

Date operations started 24 August, 1992

Description AeroSur carries 550,000 passengers annually and flies daily to 13 Bolivian cities. In its first four years of operation, the carrier gained 54% of market share. Uses a hub-and-spoke model for its operations and was the first airline the region to introduce first and business class on domestic flights.

History Following the deregulation of domestic air transport in Bolivia, AeroSur was created by merging charter companies to compete with the national carrier.
