CANADIAN SCENES: Two of Dominion Skyways' staff (left) photographed some 500 miles from the company's base; radio equipment is rather more to them than a mere means of traffic control. Above is a Canadian Airways Junkers W.34 at Fort Chipewyan, with local inhabitants and a dog team to take the mail and freight from the machine to the settlement. Note the tarpaulin cover on the engine and the two canoes lashed to the underside of the wings.
