New York Airways Inc was formed in August 1949 and began helicopter mail services between the New York area and the Canadian border. In 1952 Passenger services began in July 1953 and included a service to the Pan American Building route from Wall Street to South Street Seaport, from 1956, and to the Wall Street Heliport on the Manhattan waterfront. In 1959 New York Airways acquired from the White River Airways Inc, on 4,000 miles of routes in and between the North and South Islands of New Zealand.

Head Office: PO Box 96, Wellington CI, New Zealand.

Executives: Chairman, A. F. Gillson; president, T. J. B. B. Noble; general manager, G. D. McVey; deputy general manager, L. L. Ford; assistant general manager, G. K. Gordon; operations manager, C. Fraser; supply manager, D. W. John-...