

TRINIDAD & TOBAGO (BWIA INTERNATIONAL) AIRWAYS CORPORATION

Applications are invited from suitably qualified nationals for the vacant positions of Flight Crew Training Instructors (Ground)

The performance of job duties requires sound comprehension, calculative ability, familiarity with aircraft systems for aircraft types operated by the Company and demonstrable ability to train and develop pilots in order to assist them to increase their level of performance and professionalism.

Applicants should possess a professional degree in Aeronautical Engineering, or an Aircraft Maintenance Engineer's Licence or equivalent academic qualifications together with successful completion of a recognised course in teacher training, or acceptable experience as an Instructor, or evidence of satisfactory exposure to the methodology of teaching aircraft systems.

Salary: $2905/$3597 TRINIDAD & TOBAGO DOLLARS

Applications, in writing, should be addressed to Head, Personnel, Trinidad & Tobago (BWIA International Airways Corporation) Kent House, Long Circular Road, Maraval, Port-of-Spain, Trinidad, West Indies.

Unsuitable applications will not be acknowledged.